

SUMMER READING LOG: 0 - Pre-K

 Put a sticker on or color in a sun each day you read with someone.

 Fill in 30 suns before July 31 and you complete the program!

~~~~~

|                                                                                    |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |                                                                                       |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|   |   |   |   |   |   |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

CARNEGIE PUBLIC LIBRARY SUMMER READING PROGRAM!

How to get started:

Download and print the reading log for your age group from carnegiepubliclibrary.org OR call us to pick up a printed copy.

To complete the program:

Once you finish your reading log, contact the library at 719-846-6841.
You will receive your choice of a book and a candy bar as a prize!

